

Conducting/ participating in campaigns on rights of women and girls, and violence against them :

- Conduct / facilitate training of poor urban and rural women / organizational staff on gender issues and child rights;
- Conducting meetings on the issue of domestic violence in urban slums and villages;
- Conducting / facilitating women-headed panchayats;
- Counseling women and girls against sexual, and domestic violence, and rehabilitation;
- Preparation and distribution of campaign material;
- Facilitating grassroots networking between slums
- Facilitate monitoring of cases related to sexual harassment with special focus on minor girls;
- Facilitate community activity centres to disseminate information regarding education, livelihood, and health, with special emphasis on HIV-AIDS, TB, and other communicable diseases;
- Facilitate community to conduct tutorial classes for dropouts and failed students desirous of completing 10th Standard.
- Debate / discussion will be generated on these issues through workshops, seminars and theatre.
- Documentation of data collected through studies and fact finding, in print and visual media.

Whoever is interested in SANNIHITA'S programs, may contact us at the following address :

SANNIHITA

Center for Women and Girl Children

H. No. 1-9-6438, Near Best Bakery, Vidyanagar, (Lane Opp Andhra Maha Sabha Hospital), Hyderabad-44, Andhra Pradesh, India.

www. sannhita.org , e-mail: sannihitahyd@yahoo.com, Ph. No. 9246373978

